

I discovered KLOVE about a month ago. Before I didn't believe in God. While surfing the stations on the radio I ran across KLOVE and my radio has not left this station. Now I am a believer in God and worship him as my lord and savior. Turns out that several of my friends listen to KLOVE as well. KLOVE can serve the community by reaching out to the non-believers such as it reached out to me and allowed me to see the path to God. Now that I have found God, my life has become much better. Not allowing me to hear KLOVE would be violating my rights as an American. I love to listen to KLOVE and look forward to listening to them daily. Thanks and please don't take them away.
